RESEARCH AND SCHOLARSHIP

My research draws on comparative methods to explore questions of governance, development and cross-border dispute resolution in East Asia. In 2011, 2013 and 2014 respectively, I was awarded the HKU Faculty and University Research Output Prizes, and University Outstanding Young Researcher Award.

1. PUBLICATIONS

Books

1. Ali, S, I. Bantekas, M. Gomez, P. Ortolani, (forthcoming) COMMENTARY ON THE UNCITRAL MODEL LAW ON INTERNATIONAL COMMERCIAL ARBITRATION (Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press)
2. Ali, S. (2018), COURT MEDIATION REFORM: EFFICIENCY, CONFIDENCE AND PERCEPTIONS OF JUSTICE (Cheltenham, UK and Northampton, Massachusetts, USA: Edward Elgar). v-x, 1-291.
 - 'A' RQF
 - Review: "Professor Ali's book offers the most comprehensive, qualitative study and insights on Global Court Mediation I have encountered. It should be in the hands of every court in the world." (Judge Dorothy Nelson, US Court of Appeals)
 - Review: "Professor Shahla Ali has performed a valuable service for conflict resolution policy makers around the world. Providing diverse and mixed data reports of the uptake and resistance to court (and some private) mediation programs in ten different legal systems, she artfully surveys important legal, social and cultural differences in the uses and effectiveness of voluntary and mandatory mediation programmes." (Carrie Menkel-Meadow, University of California, Irvine and Georgetown University Law Center, US)
 - "Shahla Ali's work is an innovative meta-analysis of the trends in the institutionalization of mediation at the macro level. It has an ambitious approach that had not been attempted yet, and paves the way for other future research, as well as providing guidance to policy makers and professionals." (Luigi Cominelli, The University of Milan, Italy)
 - Reference for UC Hastings International Court ADR Institute for global judges.
 - Reviewed positively in Asian Journal of Law & Society; Asian Dispute Review
3. Ali, S. (2016) GOVERNING DISASTERS: ENGAGING LOCAL POPULATIONS IN HUMANITARIAN RELIEF (Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press). vii-xix, 1-325.
 - 'A*' RQF.

- Review: "your CUP monograph "Governing Disasters" was accorded the highest accolade of a 4*. This book will doubtless emerge as a standard work in the field of law and disasters." C.F Forsyth
 - "Governing Disasters elevates the study of law and disasters [by] setting agendas both for scholarship and policy." (David D. Caron, Dean, King's College London)
 - "This important ... book shows...that [community involvement] can make a major difference in the effectiveness of disaster relief." (Daniel Farber, UC Berkeley)
 - "Governments, scholars and humanitarian and development practitioners will benefit enormously from reviewing the actual experience of local community participation in disaster recovery expertly examined in this work." (V. Bollettino, Harvard Humanitarian Initiative)
 - Circulated internally with the President of ICRC, senior members of UNOCHR, UNDP, the Red Cross Red Crescent Climate Centre, and discussed with members of the Minerva Institute for Study of Disasters (Haifa, Israel) the Harvard Humanitarian Initiative, the Transnational Regulatory Law Working Group, and the Hague Academy for International Law.
4. Ali, S. (2013). CONSUMER FINANCIAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION IN A COMPARATIVE CONTEXT: PRINCIPLES, SYSTEMS AND PRACTICE (Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press) vii-xiv, 1-267.
- 'A*' RQF; University Research Output Prize, University of Hong Kong
 - Findings shared with delegations from Ghana, Beijing, HK, WTO, and IFC/WB.
 - Review: 'This comprehensive volume breaks new ground in surveying and comparing multiple dispute resolution systems across world regions against a backdrop of carefully outlined principles ... Well-written, thoughtful and empirically supported.' M. LeBaron, UBC
 - "provides a... comparative assessment that will be of great value to anyone analyzing or designing dispute resolution systems for consumer disputes...Dr Ali's recommendations, illuminate the continuing evolution of global norms for dispute resolution." (S. Smith, Stanford Law School)
 - "Anyone interested in the intersection of consumers, monetary disputes with financial institutions, and turbulent financial markets must read this book." (Lela P. Love, Director, Kukin Program for Conflict Resolution, Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law)
5. Ali, S. (2010; 2012 reprint). RESOLVING DISPUTES IN THE ASIA PACIFIC: INTERNATIONAL MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION IN EAST ASIA AND THE WEST (USA and Canada: Routledge). v-xiv. 1-146.

 - Research Output Prize, University of Hong Kong
 - Cited by Secretary for Justice in 2013 Keynote Speech at Arbitration Week; referenced in support of application of UNCITRAL ML to HK Arbitration Ordinance
 - "Professor Ali moves our understanding of arbitration and mediation in East Asia and globally forward with this fundamentally important work. Using both interviews and surveys of arbitrators ... Professor Ali's book allows us to better understand the changes underway in the field." (Prof. David D. Caron, UC Berkeley School of Law)
 - "The East Asia focus... combined with the empirical study, lead me to believe that there is no competing book in this subject area." (Anonymous Reviewer)
